Only Bear Flag Survivor

Henry Beeson, the only surviving member of the famous Bear Flag Party which raised the Bear Flag in the historic old plaza at Sonoma on June 14th, 1846, is to be the honored guest of the citzens of Sonoma upon the occasion of the celebration and dedication of their new hall on Admission Day. The old gentleman, while well advanced in years, is comparatively hale and hearty and will honor the celebration with his presence. He looks forward with great pride and pleasure to another visit to the stirring scenes of his youth when on June 14th, 1846, a band of patriotic Americans, he being among the party, pulled down the Mexican flag, and raised the famous Bear flag, and declared the Republic of California.

The original flag was destroyed in the earthquake and fire in San Francisco on the memorable 18th of April, 1906. It was then kept in Pioneer hall in that city. The order of Native Sons of this city have a duplicate of the original flag, and the raising of this will be a part of the ceremonies on Admission Day. The old Bear Flag pole still stands in the northeast corner of the plaza.

London's California Store

Among California's many noted "big" features, nothing has been more marvelled about than the big trees. It is not only the scenic aspect of the trees that has brought great renown to the State, but from commercial point of view the California trees which in 1907 gave forth for the trade 1,339,516,000 feet of lumber have from the start attrcted attention. For these reasons and because of the diversity of type, no exhibit of State's proucts would be complete without a representation of California woods which have brought into the State millions of dollars and furnished profitable employment to thousands of men.

It is altogether appropriate' therefore, that the big Califrnia store which is to be opened in London is to be ornamented by a big ten-foot table of California redwood. The California Promotion Committee is making an effort to have secured for this purpose a sufficiently large piece of burl redwood for the purpose; if it be found that such a piece is not obtainable, curly redwood will be used for the table top which will be highly polished. The store is to be made a headquarters for California in the British Empire, and in addition to its regular business it will house many attractive features that will draw the attention to visitors to California's wonderful resources. It is intended to make the display in the California store distinctly unique and in every way dignified and worthy of the State. Certainly no one thing within it will excite more comment than the redwood table from California, the only habitat which this unique wood knows.

BEST TREATMENT FOR A BURN.

If for no other reason, Chamberlain's Salve should be kept in every household on account of its great value in the treatment of burns. It allays the pain almost instantly, and unless the injury is a severe one, heals the parts without leaving a scar. This salve is also unequaled for chapped hands, sore nipples and diseases of the skin. Price, 25 cents. For sale by L. S. Simmons.

Now Running

The schooner "Four Sisters," Capt. D. L. Larkin, is plying regularly between the landing below town near Shellville station and San Francisco. Until further notice, the "Four Sisters" will leave the landing for San Francisco, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays of each week.

Save freight, money and get more for your fruit by shipping on the schooner. For particulars as to rates, etc., apply to Capt. D. L. Larkin, Shellville, or W. D. Heryord, agent, Mission street wharf, No 1, San Francisco.

The Lodi Fruit and Produce Company has just completed and permitted the public to inspect a new concrete building 50 by 150, basement and two stories for the manufacture of unfermented grape juice.

Finest Special Train

Twelve of the most modern and up-to-date coaches, drawn by the best engines on the Pacific coast, and making such a heavy train that it will require the combined energy of four locomotives to take it over the Siskiyou range between San Francisco and Seattle, is what is in store for the party that will go to the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition to celebrate California Promotion Committee Day, on June 15, 1909. It is to be the finest special train that ever went from San Francisco, and its symmetrical exterior by day with its electrical brilliancy by night, will make it one of the historical events of the exposition.

This magnificient train will be composed of eight Pullman and compartment sleeping coaches, two dining cars of the latest type, one combination buffet and baggage car, and one observation car, the whole combining every convience and luxury known to modern travelers, with bath rooms, barber shop, library and work room. One car will be devoted to the Committee's headquarters, and here the work of the organization will be carried on, there being stenographers, typewriters and uniformed messengers in constant attendance so that each man on the train may transact business at any time. In order to facilitate business there will be telephonic communication between cars, but at every city where stop is made connection will be made between the train and local lines so that communication may be had with local business men and also directly with San Francisco.

The trip will be limited to one hundred men who will be invited from all parts of California, making it a distinctively California train, with representatives from every county and every industry in the State. The tickets will be in coupon form, and these coupons will provide with every contingency, even to street car fares in the various cities at which stops are made. In order that there may be no confusion in the dining cars, each ticket will carry coupons telling the car and exact hour at which the holder may get his meal.

D. E. McKinley Nominated

As was expected by everyone in the second congressional district of this state, Congressman Duncan E. McKinley was renominated at the recent Republican congressional convention.

Now the Democrats are looking for a candidate willing to undertake the task of beating McKinley for the office.

Our Best Fertilizer

Intelligent and successful tillers of the soil the world over, have always recognized the folly of allowing their land to become impoverished and have been constant users of good fertilizers.

It will therefore be of interest to the farmers generally to know that the cheapest and best fertilizer in the world to day is nitrate of soda found in Chili, S. A. It has been repeatedly proved that the use of from $2 to $3 worth of nitrate to the acre has produced an increase in the crops of from 70 per cent to 300 per cent according to the soil and the crop raised.

The greater yield that comes from the use of nitrate of soda, far exceeds the expense and labor of putting it on the land.

Mr. James A. Landsborough, a former well known citizen of this valley, is an expert on the use of nitrate, and will cheerfully and freely furnish any information desired on the subject. He has about twenty tons of the nitrate on hand now and more shipments are being made each week.

For full particulars as to prices etc., call on or address James A. Landsborough, importer and whole sale and retail dealer in nitrate o soda, Shellville, Sonoma Co., Cal.

Changed the Name

The name of Mt. Olivet a station on the Guerneville branch of the C. N. railway, has been changed to Woolsey. Hereafter if you want to go Mt. Olivet, buy your ticket to Woolsey.

DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve is recommended as the best thing to use for piles. It is of course, good for anything where a salve is needed. Beware of imitations. Sold by all druggists.

Exciting Features

The locomotive head-on collision which was to take place in Sacramento the day after the close of the State Fair has been declared off on account of possible danger from flying debris, but the other thrilling and high class attractions provided by the management will be sufficient to satisfy the most exciting. That ride down a forty-five degree incline in an automobile and leap across a forty-foot gap at the bottom is an act not seen before on the Coast, and this and other exciting and entertaining features will be enacted each day during the Fair and all for the one admission. The industrial display, the art display, the live stock display, and the music are going to excel all previous shows, and these with a splendid racing program and the most and best side attractions ever put on in Sacramento are going to make a Fair worth attsnding.

Fruit Wanted

The committee of the Admission Day Celebration would be pleased to accept donations of fine fresh Sonoma Valley fruit for free distribution to visitors at the different headquarters on Sept. 9th.

The fruit can be left at Schocken's store for the Woman's Club parlors or at I. O. O. F. Hall where the Natives will keep open house to all visitors.

It is preferred that the fruit be brought in the morning of the celebration.

Superior Court Notes.

Judge Seawell called the calendar in both departments of the Superior Court.

The demurrer was overruled in suit of R. D. Dixon vs. W. L. Whittaker and the suit went over to September 21.

Don McRae was arraigned and the plea was set for September 8

The suit of Annie Mary Adams vs. Joseph Walker Adams was continued to Sept. 8.

The Lydia C. Wickersham estate matter went over to September 8.

Giede B. Andressen was named administrator on the estate of J. D. Andressen in a bond of $2,080.

The final account was settled and distribution ordered of the estate of L. D. Gale. A similar order was made in the estate of John Law.

The final account was settled of the estate of A. Peterson.

The will of Jeremiah Mackin was admitted to probate and Rose Mackin was named executrix.

Distribution was ordered of the estate of Jean Couralet.

A sale of personal property was ordered in the estate of W. P. White.

These probate matters were continued: Estates of Albert Demartini and Louise H. Campau, to Sept. 8.

The petition was dismissed in the estate of Almon D. Barnes.

Another Depot Robbed

The depot and express office at Monte Rio on the North Shore railway in the western part of this county was entered and robbed last Sunday evening. Sheriff Jack Smith lost no time in getting to work on a clew which proved to be correct. Two young fellows, Carroll V. Moore, aged 17, and Gerald Kennedy, aged 19, were arrested for the crime and lodged in the county jail. They have confessed that they were the guilty ones.

Just a little CASCASWEET is all that is necessary to give your baby when it is cross and peevish. CASCASWEET contains no opiates nor harmful drugs and is highly recommended by mothers everywhere. Conforms with the National Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by all druggists.

A. E. Sondag, the Tailor,

A. E. Sondag, the tailor, formerly of Sonoma, was in the valley this week taking orders for men's tailor-made suits. Mr. Sondag and family are temporarily located in Fruitvale, but the former expects to get permanent quarters for his tailoring establishment in the metropolis, in the near future. For many years he has enjoyed a liberal patronage from this valley and his work always gives satisfaction. Mr. Sondag will make regular weekly trips to the valley and solicits a share of he trad e. Give him a trial orde for a good suit and you'll be satissed, ctf

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1908

CLEAN UP, PLEASE!

It is always in order to clean up the town but at this time it is especially desirable in view of the approaching celebration when thousands of people will be in this city.

The City Trustees have set the example by having a gang of men at work cleaning and improving the looks of the plaza. The Board has requested the people to clean up in front of their places of business and about their home on next Monday. The City will send around a team to haul away the trash which should be piled in the street. Don't neglect this important matter. Everyone should take pride in having the historic old city look its best on Dedication Day.

Celebration Booming

Every member of the Executive Committee attended the meeting to consider and arrange final details for the coming celebration and dedication in this city.

The various committees having the different sections of the work in hand reported fine progress and much enthusiasm existing all along the line. The committee on Dedication exercises reported that they had been fortunate in securing the services of Ex-Mayor James D. Phelan of San Francisco as the Orator of the Day. Mr. Phelan is a man of national reputation and is considered a very able speaker. He is a prominent Native Son of the Golden West and dearly loves the history of the state that gave him birth. He will make a great speech.

C. E. Johnson, chairman of the music committee reported that two bands of music had been engaged for that day and that probably the services of a third would be obtained. The report of the finance committee is to be seen elswhere in these columns.

The general committee reported having secured the attendance at the big celebration of Mr. Henry Beeson, the last surviving member of the famous Bear Flag Party.

Dr. Gottenberg of the Ball committee stated that all arrangements, including fine music, had been made for the Grand Dedication Ball in Union Hall.

The Barbecue committee through Chairman Cummings stated that as far as possible the details of that attractive feature of the celebration had been attended to. He stated that the seats and tables to be built in the plaza would accommodate 500 diners at one time.

The special train from Santa Rosa and the regular from the metropolis are scheduled to arrive here shortly after 10 o'clock in the morning. As near as possible the parade will be formed before that time and stand waiting the arrival of the trains as there will be people on the trains who are expected to take part in the parade. The rest of the passengers of course want to see the big street parade snd thus will be able to do so.

The program of the day will be as follows:

1. Grand Street Parade.
2. Dedication Exercises.
3. Raising the Bear Flag on the original pole in the Plaza by Henry Beeson, the only survivor of the party.
4. Barbecue.
5. Horse races at the track and Band Concert in the Plaza.
6. Grand Ball in the evening in Union Hall.

J. C. Sims Nominates

Congressman Kahn of the Fourth Congressional Dist. has been renominated by the Republican convention for the office. Former Democratic State Senator Jas. C. Sims of this county made the nominating speech

Trustees Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Trustees of the City of Sonoma was held in the City Hall last Wednesday evening.

Trustees Bates and Breitenbach were absent, the former being in the East and the latter detained on account of sickness in the family.

Trustee McDonnell acted as President of the Board. The following bills were audited and ordered paid: H. Castagnasso, street sprinkling, $113 90; D. Valente, labor, $2; Expositor, printing, $5.40; H. Pooler, janitor, $2.50; C. Shearer, labor, $5.50; J. H. Albertson, salary, etc., $16.85; Mrs. L. V. Empuran, water, $15; F. Clewo, furniture for new City Hall, $254; Sonoma Valley Co., lights, etc., $39.40; Eureka Iron and Wire Works, folding gates, $40.

The petition of J. R. Spellacy for a license to conduct a restaurant in the Dal Pogetto Building on Napa St. was granted.

The Clerk reported having received eight applications for janitor of the City Hall but action on the matter was deferred until a future meeting when a full board will be present.

A committee from the Woman's Club composed of Mrs. M. T. Stearns and Mrs. Ameli Bates appeared before the board in regard to the Free Public Library. They stated that the library had been founded and maintained by the Woman's Club for the past five years and that there were now over 800 volumes and about 250 regular readers. The ladies urged upon the Board the need and justice of the city's helping to maintain this very useful and enlightening institution. The appeal was met with favor by the Board and it is to be hoped that when the tax rate is adopted next Monday evening, provision will be made for raising funds for the support of Sonoma's Free Public Library.

Trustee Quartaroli reported that he had employed four men who were at work cleaning the Plaza thoroughly and putting it in shape for the big celebration. Adjournment was taken till next Monday evening.

BROKE HIS NOSE

J. H. Murray, the horseshoer, is suffering from a broken nose and badly bruised face, the result of a kick from a colt in his shop on Napa St. on Wednesday.

The colt was wandering about the shop waiting for its mother who was being shod and suddenly did the Maud act with the results as stated above. Mr. Murray sought the services of Dr. Thomson immediately and had his wound dressed. The injury while very painful is not serious and Mr. Murray's many friends hope to see him about soon.

Chas. Champlin Favored

Rev. Chas. C. Champlin, a former Sonoma boy and a graduate of the Sonoma Valley Union High School, is making continued success in his career and his many friends will be pleased to learn of his preferment. Since leaving this valley he has graduated from the State University and was for a time Professor of English in the University of Tokio. Of late he has been pastor of the Congregational Church in Black Diamond. He lately declined a call from the church in Martinez, preferring to remain in Black Diamond.

Uncle Sam and California

The committee having the parade float in charge have secured the two central figures for this emblematic float. Miss Mary Valente has graciously consented to take the part of California and J. E. Van Hoosear kindly accepted the patriotic part of Uncle Sam. With the two fine central figures and the elaborate decorations, this float, which is not competing for a prize and would not accept one, promises to be a great attraction.

Grand Marshal Aides

James A. Landsborough, Grand Marshal of the Parade on the occasion of the coming Admission Day Celebration in this city, has announced the appointment of the following aides: S. B. Lewis of Sonoma, Jos. Keechler of Shellville, Howard Knight, Will Clement, Harry Weise of Glen Ellen, Joe Kiser, Carl Dresel of Rhinefarm, and Jack Knight. Mr. Landsborough is to be congratulated on his excellent selections.

Finance Committee's Work

The Finance Committee, of which J. K. Bigelow is chairman, have kept on working and have secured an additional number of very welcome donations, as will appear in the lists below. Robert P. Hill started the Glen Ellen list with ten dollars, but the remainder we have not learned as the solicitor still has the list in use.

The committee feel very happy over the fact that two fine fat steers have been donated for the barbecue. Joseph Keechler, superintendent of the Jones ranch gave one and A. W. Foster, former president of the Northwestern Pacific Railway gave the other.

Mrs. Robt. Hall Entertains

Thursday afternoon at the beautiful Hall home below town, Mrs Robert Hall delightfully entertained about forty of her lady friends at a "Queer Tea Party," which consisted of handing each guest a card on which were printed twenty riddles, each beginning with T. Prizes were given Mrs. C. E. Johnson winning the first prize, a beautiful silver tea strainer and Dr. Frances Leix the booby prize.

Delicious refreshments were served. At five o'clock the guests departed taking with them memories of a most enjoyable afternoon.

Supt. Montgomery Here

County Supt. DeWitt Montgomery was here this week officially visiting the various schools in the valley. He finds them in good condition.

Mr. Montgomery was a former principal of our local High School and has a host of friends in this section will be pleased to know that he is making an ideal superintendent and that his services in that office are eminently satisfactory in every way.

High School Reception

The students of the High School gave a delightful reception to the Freshmen Class in the Assembly Hall of the High School building on Broadway last Friday evening.

Dancing was the principal feature of the evenings pleasures. Light refreshments were served and a most enjoyable evening was spent

Petaluma Fire

A fire broke out on Washington St, in Petaluma about 9 o'clock last Friday evening, causing several thousand dollars loss before it was extinguished.

The principal losers by the fire are: Mrs. W. B. Haskell, D. Gutermute, Mrs. Angela Canepa, Lerer Bros., Meeks and Patterson, and Mae Lewis.

Death of Mrs. Rivian

Mrs. Rivian, wife of J. Rivian, passed away at the family residence on the Vallejo place last Monday morning. Deceased was a native of Marseilles, France, and about 40 years of age. Funeral services took place from the St Francis Church last Tuesday. Interment was in Mountain Cemetery.

Rev. Rowe Acceptable

At the recent quarterly meeting of the officers of the local M. E. Church at which Dist. Supt. Pearson was present, it was unanimously decided to urge upon the next quarterly conference that the present pastor, Rev. R. Lionel Rowe, be re-appointed to this charge.

Rev. and Mrs. Rowe have lived and worked in Sonoma in the cause of Christianity for the past four years. The good work is greatly appreciated and it has been very successful.

We hope that the conference will see fit to grant the wishes of the people, as naturally the members of the congregation and their host of other friends desire to keep them.

Expert Allen Here

Sam I. Allen, former sheriff of this county and an expert barbecue chef, was here on Monday looking over the ground in preparation for the grand barbecue to be given here on our next Admission Day. Tables and benches will be built under the trees in the park for the accommodation of the diners.

Notice to Contractors.

The Trustees of El Verano School District hereby solicit bids for the construction of a school house on the school lot of said district in Sonoma county, according to the plans and specifications thereof now open for inspection at the office of T. H. Baines in El Verano in Sonoma county. Sealed bids for the construction of said building may be left with Joseph Revie, the Clerk of said Board any time prior to 12 o'clock M., on the 8th day of September, 1908. The bids will be opened within five (5) days after the said Board has received notice that the said bonds have been sold. Said Board reserves the right to reject any and all bids. Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check payable to Joseph Revie, Clerk of the Board, for ten per cent of the amount bid, as a guarantee of good faith to enter into a contract with the Trustees within ten days.

FRANK WEAVER,

SUMMONS

No. 6391

In the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the county of Sonoma.
In the matter of the Homestead of A. W. PETERSON, Deceased
ANNIE M. PETERSON, Petioner.

Action brought in the Superior court of the State of California, in and for the county of Sonoma, and the petition filed in the office of the county clerk of said county of Sonoma.

Robert A. Poppe, attorney for Petioner.

The people of the State of California send greeting to Annie M. Peterson, Hilda Agusta Henrys, August William Peterson, and Axel Raymond Peterson; and generally to all persons interested in or having claims against the homestead of A. W. Peterson deceased:

You are hereby directed to appear, and answer the petition in an action entitled as above, brought against you in the Superior court of the State of California, in and for the county of Sonoma, within ten days after the service on you of this Summons—if served within this county; or within thirty days if served elsewhere.

And you are hereby notified that unless you appear and answer as above required, the said petitioner will take judgment for any money or damages demanded in the petition, as arising upon contact, or she will apply to the court for any other relief demanded in the petition.

(SEAL) Given under my hand and seal of the said Superior Court this 21st day of August, 1908.

Do You Feel Chilly, Then Feverish and Ache all Over?

Feel Worn-out, Blue and Tired? Have You a Fresh Cold, With Frequent Hacking Cough? Sensation of Soreness in the Chest or Back?

Don't let your case run into bronchitis, or some other obstinate and dangerous malady. The very best medicine to take in such a case is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Made without alcohol or dangerous drugs, it contains that rare combination of native medicinal roots that will allay a cough (iron it out, as it were), restore the circulation, assist the appetite and digestion, and consequently restore tone to the entire system. That is the reason people look happy once more after taking it—they feel like living, because their liver is active, the blood in their arteries is full of that life-giving quality—rich, red blood. The blood in turn feeds the nerves.

Nervousness and neuralgia are only the indication that the nerves are not fed on invigorating blood. This "Medical Discovery" of Dr. Pierce is nature's own restorer. It tones up the organism and invigorates its functions, furnishing to the body one of its necessary constituent principles of which it is in need.

This preparation is of pleasant taste, agrees perfectly with rebellious and sensitive stomachs, and is extremely effective in restoring tone and vigor to the entire system. It cures troubles of the stomach and at the same time the blood-vessels are given such a toning up as to throw off a cold. One very good reason why it restores the health of run-down, pale and emaciated people is because it first throws out the poisons through the liver and kidneys. It then begins its reconstructive work in building up flesh and making good, rich, red blood.

"I have been a sufferer from indigestion for some thirty years, at times," writes Mr. S. W. Mullenax, of Circleville, W. Va., "and have used medicine from several of our best physicians, which gave me only a little temporary relief. They said I could never be cured. Last winter I was stricken with the worst spell that I ever had. I suffered with such severe pains in the pit of my stomach that I could neither work nor sleep, and my weight went down from one hundred and ninety-five pounds to one hundred and sixty pounds in about two months' time. I then concluded that I would try Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. By the time the first bottle was gone, I felt some relief from my severe suffering so continued until I had used four bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I am truly thankful for the great benefit which I have received from your medicine, and can cordially recommend it to others."

It Stands Alone not only in respect to its ingredients but also as the only medicine for stomach, liver and blood disorders, which absolutely CONTAINS PURELY VEGETABLE AND PERFECTLY HARMLESS INGREDIENTS, WITH NO ALCOHOL.

It Stands Alone as the best alterative medicine, the makers of which take their patients fully into their confidence and tell them exactly what they are taking. This Dr. Pierce can afford to do, because his "GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY" is made of such ingredients and after a working formula that has thousands of cures to its credit, placing its merits above criticism.

It Stands Alone as Nature's cure for many chronic diseases and its ingredients are: Golden Seal root, Queen's root, Stone root, Black Cherry bark, Bloodroot, Mandrake root, and chemically pure glycerine.

Remember, these are the ORIGINAL Little Liver Pills, first put up by old Dr. R. V. Pierce, over 40 years ago, and although much imitated, have never been equaled. Made of concentrated and refined medicinal principles, extracted from native American plants and roots, therefore purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. One little Pellet for a stomachic, or stomach and bowel regulator, three tiny granules for a cathartic.

Don't be afraid to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to your children. It contains no opium or other harmful drug. It always cures. For sale by L. S. Simmons.

Wine grape growers of the state recently held a meeting at Sacramento to discuss the possibility of securing better returns for their grapes.

When you have a cold you may be sure that it has been caused indirectly by constipation and consequently you must first take something to move the bowels. This is what has made Kennedy's Laxative Cough syrup so successful and so generally demanded. It does not constipate like most of the old fashioned cough cures, but on the other hand it gently moves the bowels and at the same time heals irritation and allays inflammation of the throat. Sold by all druggists.

Calaveras Big Trees and many other large forests of Northern California have been in danger from the fierce fires which have raged in the Sierra Nevadas.

FOR A SPRAINED ANKLE.

A sprained ankle may be cured in about one-third the time usually required, by applying Chamberlain's Liniment freely, and giving it absolute rest. For sale by L. S. Simmons.

The small dairy, used as an educational factor at the Agricultural College at Berkeley, will be transferred to Davisville to be used as a nucleus for a new and larger herd.

Kodol will, in a very short time, enable the stomach to do the work it should do, and the work it should do is to digest all the food you eat. When the stomach can't do it Kodol does it for it and in the meantime the stomach is getting stronger and able to take up its regular work again. Kodol digests all you eat. It makes the stomach sweet and it is pleasant to take. It is sold here by all druggists.

San Jose and surroundings are making an effort to make the "Garden City" a "spotless town" by a campaign against weeds and rubbish.

GOOD FOR BILIOUSNESS

"I took two of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets last night, and I feel fifty per cent. better than I have for weeks, says J. J. Firestone of Allegan, Mich. "They are certainly a fine article for biliousness." For sale by L. S. Simmons.

Red Bluff peach trees are loaded with immense crops. This is especially true of Muirs, which are bearing exceedingly heavy this year.

A Traveling Man's Experience

"I must tell you my experience on an East bound O. R. & N. R. R. train from Pendleton to Le Grande, Ore., writes Sam A. Gaiber a well known traveling man. "I was in the smoking department with some other traveling men when one of them went out into the coach and came back and said, 'There is a woman sick unto death in the car. I at once got up and went out, found her very ill with cramp colic; her hands and arms were drawn up so you could not straighten them, and with a deathlike look on her face. Two or three ladies were working with her and giving her whiskey. I went to my suit case and got my bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy (I never travel without it), ran to a water tank, put a double dose of the medicine in the glass, poured some water into it and stirred it with a pencil; then I had quite a time to get the ladies to let me give it to her, but I succeeded. I could at once see the effect and I worked with her, rubbing her hands, and in twenty minutes I gave her another dose. By this time we were almost into Le Grande, where I was to leave the train. I gave the bottle to the husband to be used in case another dose should be needed, but by the time the train ran into Le Grande she was all right, and I received the thanks of every passenger in the car." For sale by L. S. Simmons.

Railroad Courtship.

By J. LUDLUM LEE.

Copyrighted, 1908, by Associated Literary Press.

Alice Twitchell stood in the concourse of the Grand Central station bemoaning her fate. She had just missed the 3:45 for Greenwich. Something (or was it some one?) struck her violently in the back, and she swung round just as a young man dashed by to the closed gate. She was adjusting a shaken puff when the youth returned full of apologies.

"I beg your pardon, but I did want to catch that 3:45 train the worst way," he said, as he mopped his brow.

"So did I," replied Alice with emphasis, "but I did not think it necessary to employ personal violence as a means of catching it."

Alice turned from the apologetic man, who stood regarding her with open admiration. The latter or something magnetic in his personality, added to the thought of the two hours she had to wait before the next train left for Greenwich, made her hesitate.

"You deserve some form of punishment suited to your offense," she said, with charming assumed severity.

"Oh, I say," continued the man, "I'm no professional slugger, you know, just a plain, everyday lawyer running out of town for a holiday," and he produced his card in verification of the statement. "And maybe you'll be easier when I tell you that there was a girl on that train I've been trying to meet for two years."

Alice read the name on the card, "Mr. Walter Witherspoon." Then she smiled. He followed her into the waiting room, and they sat down on the uncomfortable benches. Conversation of an impersonal but interesting nature made the wait remarkably short. Once settled in comfortable Pullman chairs they were like old traveling companions.

"You see," Mr. Witherspoon was explaining, "this girl I missed on the other train is a peach—the prettiest girl ever—except you."

"Don't you think we might have a window open, Mr. Witherspoon?" Alice interrupted. Witherspoon opened the window and turned the conversation into a less personal channel.

"Where do you visit in Greenwich?"

"Oh, me—that is, I—oh, I am going to visit my grandmother," answered Alice, with halting speech.

"I bet she's a dear old lady," assured Witherspoon. "Now, this other girl that I was going to meet—she had no relatives."

Alice offered no interruptions this time, and he rattled on.

"She's an orphan, no brothers, sisters, mother or grandmother—nobody but herself. The Hardys are giving a celebration of their wedding anniversary, and they asked Miss Twitchell and me. And, well, you know that all happy brides are matchmakers! But I'm jolly glad I missed her, 'cause"—

"The next station is ours, I think," suggested Alice.

"By Jove, so it is," agreed Witherspoon. "How time does fly in good company! Say, there's a chap, Billy Brewster, who's going to be there, and he gets all the girls under the spell of his fascination. I thought if I could just head him off with this other girl—but now"—

"Greenwich!" shrieked the conductor.

It was quite dark when the two left the train, and Witherspoon bade reluctant adieus to his companion. He offered to find her carriage, but she declined this assistance. Then he asked if he might know her name.

"Smith," said Alice, "just S-m-i-t-h, the old fashioned spelling, you know," and she was lost in the darkness and the crowd.

Billy Brewster met Witherspoon with the trap, but seemed surprised to find him alone.

"Where's Miss Twitchell, old chap? She didn't come up on the other train," said Brewster as they climbed in the trap.

"Hanged if I know, Bill," assured Witherspoon. "And, for that matter, I don't care. I met the most beautiful girl on the train, and I'm all in. If it takes me a lifetime I'll find her again and marry her."

"You ought to have lived in the twelfth century, Walter. They carried off the women by force in those days," encouraged Billy.

Once inside the Hardy country home the men were called to account. Where was Miss Twitchell? Mrs. Hardy expressed so much solicitude that Billy Brewster offered to go back and look for her guest once more.

Witherspoon turned to go to his room and change his clothes for the evening when the bell rang and Mrs. Hardy opened the door to admit the lost guest. Witherspoon caught her voice and stood glued to the stairs.

"Oh, I'm here all right," she said gayly. "Came up in a station trap. I missed the 3:45 and had to wait for the 5:45. Now, do let me run up to my room and get into a comfy light frock, and then I'll tell you all about it."

Half an hour later Witherspoon returned to the drawing room. His collar seemed a bit too small, for he kept pulling at it. Why did his vest keep riding up? He pulled it down once, twice and then again. Perhaps he was nervous. He stood by an open window smoking a cigarette, trying to look perfectly calm, when the rustle of silken flounces made him change color.

"Walter, come here," called Mrs. Hardy. "I want you to know the dearest girl, Miss Twitchell. You've heard us talk about her so often."

And, as usual, the woman saved the day.

"Mr. Witherspoon and I are old friends," said Alice as she took his hand and looked up into his eyes with a merry twinkle in her own. "But the person I want to meet is the invincible Mr. Billy Brewster, said to be world famed for his fascination."

The guests at Mrs. Hardy's celebration, which lasted until Monday morning, promptly realized that two of the party were almost continually missing from the circle. When a bridge whist game was announced neither Mr. Witherspoon nor Miss Twitchell could be induced to make up a table. When swimming was suggested in the morning Alice declared it a bore to get ready, and Witherspoon agreed that sitting on the porch was preferable to a dip in cold water.

Try as he would, Billy Brewster could not secure a moment's conversation with Alice without seeing Witherspoon inconsiderately near and glowering at him. To be sure, they condescended to appear at meals with the other guests, and at the dance Saturday night Witherspoon was decently attentive to his hostess.

Monday morning arrived with unseemly haste, and who can say how it happened that the wagonette would hold only six of the eight guests returning to town? And who will explain how it happened that Witherspoon and Alice were the two selected to go in a hired trap?

It struck Alice that the drive to the station was much longer than coming from it, despite the most agreeable company by her side. Finally the old horse drew up alongside the platform, and Witherspoon helped her out. She looked in all directions for their fellow guests.

"Why, where are the rest of our crowd?" she asked in amazement.

"A-hem!" started Witherspoon. "It looks as if we had missed another train."

"How can that be?" suggested Alice. "We started at the same time they did, and now we will have to wait thirty minutes for the next train How could it have happened?" she repeated.

"Well, the fact is," confessed Witherspoon, "it didn't happen by accident. I paid the driver $2 to miss the train."

Alice looked at him searchingly to see if she really heard him aright.

"You see," continued Witherspoon "I wasn't going to have Billy Brewster staring at us all the way in town. I wanted you all to myself. And I want to say something to you."

"Not here in a railroad station!" cried Alice, with feminine premonition of what that something was.

"Why not?" asked Walter recklessly. "We're all alone, and I want to tell you that I love you, and, oh, Alice, won't you say 'Yes?'"

"Want the New York train?" yelled the station agent.

"Yes, of course," replied Alice.

Witherspoon beamed on her and grasped her hand. "Oh, sweetheart, if you knew what a happy man I am—and do you really love me?"

"I was speaking to the station agent when I said 'Yes,'" said Alice blushingly. "But maybe the same answer will do for both."
